POLITICAL NEWS

Because of the fact that people in all sections of Anderson and adjoining counties are deeply interested in the approaching State campaign, The Intelligencer has arranged at considerable additional expense, to secure a complete and comprehensive report of the campaign, day by day, as it progresses. In addition to that The Intelligencer now announces a remarkable reduction in the subscription price DURING THE CAMPAIGN ONLY. The campaign and elections will continue over approximately three months and for that length of time The Morning Intelligencer will be sent to any address for Seventy-five Cents, strictly in advance.

ELECTRIC CITY SPARKLETS

Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

Lights Make An Impression.
Anderson people have now become a little accustomed to the new white way and for that reason many of them fail to think of the impression made upon visitors coming to Anderson after night. An automobile driver arrived in the city last night, well after dark had fallen, and he was surprised when he saw the lights here. He had never visited Anderson before. He said he had understood that this was only a small place and he did not think it worth while to stop here until he arrived at the square and saw that the town is really a place of importance. He is spending the night here and he will leave in the morning, a converted "booster." That one man's influence may result in several new enterprises being attracted to Anderson, thereby paying for the system. This is but one illustration and there are dozens of others.

Railroads Have Completed Plans.
W. R. Tabor of Greenville, who is connected with the Southern railway at that point, spent yesterday in Anderson and while here made the statement that his road had completed all preparations for handling the large number of Elks coming to this city next week. Mr. Tabor said that his line had made every possible preparation for looking after the travelers and would leave nothing undone in an effort to make them enjoy the trip, not only to Anderson but over the road. The Southern railway will send three or four Pullman cars into Anderson from Columbia and Spartanburg and this will be a great help since Anderson has not the hotel facilities to care for such a large number of visitors at one time. It is estimated that 500 or possibly more members of the B. P. O. Elks will be here Wednesday and Thursday.

"General" Must Not Carry Arms.
Magistrate Broadwell had before him yesterday a no-less distinguished person than General Steverson, a negro, charged with carrying an "owl's head" which in the parlance of Anderson's negroes means a vicious .38-calibre pistol. After due deliberation and considering the matter in all lights, the magistrate could see no reason why Steverson should carry a pistol, even though he is a general, and therefore the sentence of the court was that the said General Steverson pay a fine of $25. The negro did not have the money but his boss did and his fine was paid.

Teaching How To Make Clothes.
Anderson women doing part of their own sewing will be interested in the visit of Mrs. Alice R. Bellamey of the Pictorial Review Company of New York, who will pay a visit to Anderson today. Mrs. Bellamey comes here to be at the Moore-Wilson Company for today only and she will explain to all these ladies during the day at this popular store, about the best styles for various dresses with patterns and doubtless there will be a number of people to avail themselves of her advice during the day. She will leave tomorrow.

Mr. Briskey Shows Slight Improvement.
It was stated yesterday by his relatives that J. A. Briskey was possibly a little improved, although his condition is far from satisfactory. Owing to his advanced age the patient is not recovering very rapidly from the injuries he received when he was thrown from his wagon a week ago. The most serious injuries consist of a wound on his head and two broken ribs in his left side. He was brought to the Anderson County Hospital a few days ago in the hope that he might improve there more rapidly and his friends are trusting that the next few days may see him well on the way to a complete restoration of health.

Mr. Harris Will Be Wedded Sunday.
Anderson people will learn with interest that C. L. Harris, who is one of the efficient and accommodating salesmen at Kay's Cash store, will be married next Sunday. Mr. Harris is to wed Miss Margaret Griffin and the ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride in Ninety-Six Sunday afternoon. Only a few intimate friends will be present and after a short trip the bride and groom will be at home to their friends in this city.

Barn Burned By Lightning.
During the progress of Wednesday afternoon's electrical storm, lightning struck a barn on John T. Bolt's plantation, in the Centerville section, and burned it to the ground. There was no water protection and the building was burned to ashes in a few minutes. From different sections of the county came reports of damage done by the storm. In many sections trees were uprooted, barns were blown down and in some instances, damage was done to houses.

New Pupils Are Being Enrolled.
Miss Barnett Harper of Honea Path, daughter of M. L. Harper of that place, has arrived in Anderson and has matriculated in Cecil's Business College. The head of that institution says that he is receiving new students daily and that the season bids fair to be one of the best the school has ever enjoyed. Anderson people are well aware of the fact that this is one of the best known schools of its kind in the state.

FANS SAW LEAGUERS FOR THE FIRST TIME

WON FROM Y. M. C. A BUNCH YESTERDAY

SCORE WAS 5 TO 0
Chick Watson Struck Out 20 Men and Red Childers Registered 3 Runs Out of 4 Times Up

Anderson baseball fans yesterday witnessed the first appearance of the Anderson league team when that aggregation went up against the Y. M. C. A. team and won from them by a score of 5 to 0. While there was some ragged playing done, the exhibition was as good as has been seen at Buena Vista park in some several moons. The fans were tickled with the show, made by the league team and did not hesitate to say so.

The two most marked features of the game may be mentioned as the pitching of Watson for the leaguers and the hitting of Childers. Watson struck out 20 men and Childers, out of four times up, secured three three batters, any one of which would have been stretched into home runs if the league season had opened.

The Y. M. C. A. boys played good ball but they were handicapped by the fact that their team was disorganized and several vacancies had to be filled with borrowed players. If Anderson goes into the proposed Piedmont league with a club ranking equal in all respects with some of yesterday's playing this team will be found among the top notchers before one week of playing has passed. The home aggregation looked good.

It is said around the circuit that the season positively will open Monday, regardless of whether there is a fourth town in the league by that date and if this course is pursued Anderson will be ready to send her bunch out on the opening day. With a few weak places filled the Anderson bunch will have a good show at the rag and will rank well with any club in the association. It is said that "Legs" Martin has corralled a husky bunch of collegians and has them in Spartanburg now, ready to open the season and Stouch is supposed to have a team in Greenville, ready for the field. Anderson is certainly but a little way behind and this town will give a good account of herself.

It is now a question of whether Gaffney or Union will get the vacant berth in the league. Gaffney has the refusal of the place and Union will have no chance unless Gaffney refuses to enter. In that event, it is said that one Union fan is ready to finance the entire venture and put a club into the association next Monday. Anyway there is to be baseball of some sort in Anderson this year and that will be cause for rejoicing among the local enthusiasts.

The two picnics conducted by Anderson churches yesterday proved to be successes and they were enjoyed by large crowds. The Sunday school pupils and members of the Central Presbyterian spent the day at Williamston and had one of the most delightful outings at the Williamston park that this church has ever experienced. Under the leadership of D. Witherspoon Dodge (who almost missed the train) the Central people left Anderson yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock on the G. S. & A. railway, traveling on a special train. They had a delightful dinner in the park and returning reached Anderson last night at 7 o'clock. There was not a single accident during the day.

Like the other church, there was no accident on the picnic conducted by the First Presbyterian church to Simpson's mill and this was a thoroughly enjoyable event. The children composing this picnic party left Anderson yesterday morning at an early hour, making the trip out to this beautiful spot in automobiles. They had a pleasant day and there was not a single accident to occur which could cause annoyance. Both the outings were enjoyable and the tired, but happy, children said last night that they had never enjoyed picnics more than they did those yesterday.

PRESIDENT RIGGS COMING TUESDAY
Will Aid Anderson Farmers In Taking Care of State Meet and Invite Body to Clemson

W. M. Riggs, president of Clemson College, will come to Anderson Tuesday to be present at the meeting of the Anderson County Farmers Union. At this meeting the Anderson farmers will consider ways, means and discuss plans for taking care of the State Farmers Union when it holds its meeting here in July.

Dr. Riggs is coming to Anderson for the purpose of submitting a proposition to the Anderson Farmers Union. With the consent of that body he will tender an invitation to all the delegates to the State convention to come to Clemson for one day of the convention. The college will arrange to show the farmers the splendid plant that it has there and will explain the working details of all the agricultural departments. The visitors will be the guests of the college for dinner.

While no statement can be made about the matter until Mr. Riggs puts his proposition before the Anderson farmers, it is foregone conclusion that they will approve of the plan.

The Tuesday meeting of the Anderson union will be held in the city hall, owing to the fact that court will be in session at the court house.
